

Star Formula

By Mike Hebrard of Athletic Field Design

The best way to describe the process is by using a 7: 6 ratio. Say your radius is 9', multiply by 7' (63') divided by 6' equals 10.5' or $9' \times 7' \text{ divided by } 6'$. This can also be used to make a Pentagon.